Business Directory

Welcome to Main Street Abbeville!

Abbeville, population 12,000, is located in the heart of Cajun Country. Father Antoine Desire Megret, a Catholic priest, founded the city in 1843. Centered around the beautiful Magdalen Square and surrounded by National Register Historic Properties, the city's historic downtown boasts parish and municipal offices, a thriving business community, restaurants, gift and specialty shops, and museums.

The economy, based on agriculture, seafood, and manufacturing, supports a diverse cultural community. Visit Abbeville, where the welcome mat is always out, and let our architecture and ambiance capture your imagination.
